Importance of Special Town Meeting. The special town meeting called for this evening is exciting more than the usual interest. No meeting in recent years has been so thoroughly discussed and developments are sure to come to a head tonight.

There are only three articles to be acted upon: First, To receive the report of the committee appointed by the legal voters at the adjourned annual town meeting, held October 10, 1998, as to said committee's nivestigation of the matter of providing of the matter of providing of the matter. tigation of the matter of providing ac-commodations for the increased at-tendance at the high school, and to take action on said report, or make such appropriations to carry into effect the recommendations of the report as may be necessary; second. To deter-mine whether the town will vote to etery, at a cost not to exceed $6,000, and to make the necessary appropria-tions therefor; third, To determine by ballet whether the town will approve by a majority vote of those present at the meeting who were registered on the last corrected list of voters of said town last before completed, the resolution passed at the adjourned annual town meeting, held October 10, 1908.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and small nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dansfruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the members as follows: The world is the merly observed in certain sections of the church only, today its value is yeary widely recognized in our denom-ination and many others. The Chris-tian religion is a life of fellowship with our great Friend. Its purity and its power are enhanced as we remind ourselves once and again of the depth of the love of our Friend for us. Its depth is proclaimed in His crucifixion, and the wisdom and the victory of it are attested in His resurrection.

An Unannounced Wrestling Match. A wrestling match that would have packed the house, had it been advertised, was quietly pulled off, so it is rumored about the street, Monday forenoon in the armory. The contestants were Lieutenant Killourey of the police force and John Collins, the well known atone mason. Constable William J. Hastings was the official referee and awarded the match to the shifty Killourey, who succeeded in pinning his antagonist to the mat in jig time. There was no time. Killourey is certainly a good athlete and also enjoys the distinction of being the champion quoit pitcher in this section of the country, although one Mr. Higgins, who lives on the lower "Brooklya side" of the city, is said to be willing to contest or protest this latter claim. > INTERESTING POINT Raised by Dr. Robert G. Perry of New York.

Dr. Robert G. Perry of New York, son of ex-Mayor Franklin W. Perry of this city, has raised an interesting legal question in regard to the right of a trustee in bankruptcy to recover debts due a bankrupt member of the Consoll-dated Stock Exchange, of that city, from fellow members of the exchange when the bankrupt is indebted to those other members. other members.

The point was raised in the case of James E. Lynch (for whom Mr. Torrey is attorney), trustee of Gregory Gulick & Co., stock brokers. The referee in hankruptcy ruled that such debts due the bankrupt were a part of the estate and members of the exchange have no preference. An appeal was taken by the management of the stock exchange to the United States district court, and the decision of the referee was con-braned. Further appeal is to be taken to the United States circuit court of which decision will probably
